

Pet Poultry for

Veterinary Technicians

Who: Veterinary technicians who would like to gain experience working with pet poultry.

What: To provide technicians with the knowledge and skills needed when working with poultry

When & Where: October 9, 2010—WSU Puyallup from 8:00 am—12:00pm

Why: Raising small flocks of chickens for eggs, or keeping them as pets in urban areas is becoming increasingly more common. WSDA and WSU would like to provide continuing education for veterinary technicians to help meet the needs of the growing population of small flock poultry owners.

Cost: $40

Attendees will receive 4 continuing education credits offered by WSDA.

If you are interested in attending, please contact Julie Walker at (360) 725-5762 or jwalker@agr.wa.gov prior to October 1st and she will provide you with a registration form. There are a limited number of spots available for this course.
